Hampi Trip

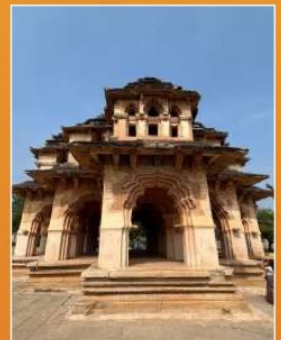

Highlights of Hampi

The Stone Chariot, an iconic and intricately carved structure within Hampi's Vijaya Vittala Temple, is a remarkable testament to the Vijayanagara Empire's architectural brilliance and a prominent symbol of Karnataka's heritage.

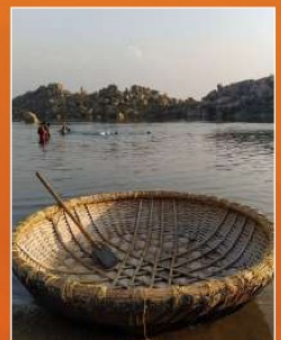

Virupaksha Temple, the only temple in Hampi that is still actively used for worship, it boasts a towering gopuram (ornate gatetower), intricate carvings, and a sacred elephant.

Lotus Mahal, A beautiful, symmetrical pavilion that served as a recreational palace for the royal women, known for its unique blend of Indian and Islamic architectural styles.

The Ugra Narasimha statue in Hampi is a massive monolithic sculpture depicting Lord Vishnu's man-lion avatar in a terrifying form, seated on the coils of a seven-headed serpent.

A coracle ride in Hampi offers a unique and serene way to explore the Tungabhadra River and its ancient riverside ruins from a traditional circular basket boat.
