OVERVIEW

Ratangad Fort

Ratangad Fort, located in Maharashtra, India, is a historic fort dating back over 2,000 years, with connections to the Maratha Empire under Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Known as the "Jewel of Sahyadri," it offers a panoramic view of the Sahyadri mountains and was strategically significant for defending the region. The fort is notable for its ancient rock-cut caves, bastions, and natural features like the "Nedhe" or "Eye of the Needle," a natural rock formation that provides a unique view of the surrounding landscape. Discover a hidden mystery at each of the fort's four gates—Ganesh, Hanuman, Konkan, and Trimbak—where wells stand watch, protecting untold legends. View from top of Different Mountain Ranges including AMK, Kalsubai, Katrabai, View of Bhandardhara Backwaters and Ancient Amruteshwar Temple at Base.
